

NY ABLE's Privacy Policy

New York State Personal Privacy Protection Law Notice.

Personal information is collected from you under the authority of the New York Achieving A Better Life Experience Act and Section 529A of the Code (the "NY ABLE"). Personal information is being requested from you by the employees, agents, or representatives of the Comptroller and the Program Manager. Ascensus Broker Dealer Services, LLC serves as the Program Manager.

Your personal information will be maintained in the records of NY ABLE. The Program Manager is responsible for maintaining those records. They may be contacted by mail at PO Box 55087, Boston MA 02205 or by phone at 855-569-2253.

The personal information you submit will be used to maintain records of your contributions to the Program and the earnings on those contributions. It will also be used to process transactions you request. If you decline to submit the requested information, it may be impossible for you to be enrolled in the Program or for the Program to process transactions you request.
